

Embassy of Ireland

Tel Aviv University

Yolanda and David Katz Faculty of the Arts
Department of Theatre Arts

You are cordially invited to join us to celebrate the William Butler Yeats Travelling Exhibition

The National Library of Ireland's Travelling Exhibition on the life and works of Ireland's most famous poet, the Nobel laureate, William Butler Yeats, is on view at Tel Aviv University's Sourasky Central Library until the end of March 2012

Tuesday 20 March at 18:00 ♦ Sourasky Central Library, Tel Aviv University

In the presence of H.E. Breifne O'Reilly, Ambassador of Ireland

A special programme on Yeats will be introduced by Prof. (Emerita) Linda Ben Zvi

Prof. Gad Kaynar will read a selection of poems by Yeats in English and Hebrew translation
Prof. (Emeritus) Shimon Levy will discuss Yeats' contribution to modernism in theatre and read an excerpt from his Hebrew translation of Yeats' play At the Hawk's Well and Lady Gregory's play The Rising of the Moon

The programme will be followed by a reception. DVD of the Exhibition available on request: sheilab.harris@dfa.ie

With the support of:

Embassy of Ireland
Irish Department of Foreign Affairs, Culture Division
Tel Aviv University, Theatre Arts Department and the Sourasky Central Library
The National Library of Ireland

Pedestrian entrance to the University through Gates 2 or 7. Entrance for vehicles by Gate 8 (Bochner Gate, Levanon Street)*